

Little Sheep Learning

Hello from Little Sheep Learning

December is here and at Little Sheep Learning we really now really looking forward to Christmas. We've now been sending out our monthly newsletter for a year – thank you for staying subscribed and seeing the changes that we have made to the site over the last year. As ever, this newsletter, tells you about this months special offers, includes a special discount code for your next order and details of our Christmas Competition, so keep reading!

If you've already started your Christmas shopping don't forget we've got some great products on the site for stocking fillers – take a look at the mini first experiences books or our extensive range of right and left handed scissors or our lovely range of educational puppets. If you haven't started yet don't worry our last order date isn't until 20th December!

Special Offers

This month you can save 10% on all the products in our Emotions category – make your child happy this Christmas with our emotions teaching mitt and our lovely Mr Face activity wall hanging and Miss Face emotions cube.

Discount Code

Quote DecemberNews to save a further 10% on any orders placed before 31st December.

Competition

Don't forget to get your children to enter our Christmas colouring competition – simply print out the tree, decorate it and post it to us by the 17th December to be in with a chance of winning.

Christmas Posting / Office Closure

Please note our last order date for Christmas posting is 20th December 2007, orders placed after this date will not be processed until Monday 7th January.

Lastly...

Don't forget that we have a range of Christmas activity and colouring sheets and articles in our resources section.

Thank you to all our customers over the last year, look out for our January newsletter with details of all January Sale

Happy Christmas

Elaine

Little Sheep Learning

The best teaching and learning resources